Turks & Caicos Sotheby's International Realty Announces Significant Sale on Parrot Cay

Turks & Caicos Sotheby's International Realty is pleased to announce the successful listing and sale of Oliver's Cove Estate along with neighbouring parcel, located on the private island resort of Parrot Cay by COMO, for an aggregate sales price of $27.45M.

Oliver's Cove is one the finest estates in the Caribbean, and recently consisted of the magnificent main house and guest beach house on approximately 800' of pristine beachfront. Coupled with the neighboring lot, the circa 10 acre estate sits on nearly 1,100 feet of beachfront on one of the world's finest stretches of beach on Parrot Cay.

States Broker Joe Zahm: "The sale of Oliver's Cove represents a breakthrough residential sale for Parrot Cay, and for Turks & Caicos, reinforcing the appeal of both in the eyes of the High Net Worth and Ultra High Net Worth purchaser. Over the past 18 months, Parrot Cay and Oliver's Cove have garnered international attention both within the Sotheby's International Realty, and Sotheby's Auction networks, and in meaningful press and distribution such as the Wall Street Journal and other prestigious publications." Adds Partner Nina Siegenthaler: "Our listings are beautifully photographed and digitally presented, along with superb videos (link to Parrot Cay video). In addition to our electronic and print materials, the digital presentation helped capture the imagination of the industry, publications and our target audience seeking extraordinary real estate and lifestyle."

The Oliver's Cove sale in February 2016 comes on the heels of our listing and sale of Amazing Grace in April 2015 at $15.1M, and the listing and sale of Northwest Point waterfront parcel at $23M in December 2014.
